

LOCAL NEWS.

Children's Day will be observed at Drummondtown Baptist Church to-morrow morning.

The Eastern Shore Agricultural Fair, commences Tuesday, August 30th, continuing four days.

An advertisement of Dr. Zirkel & Bro., in this issue, is commended to the special attention of our readers.

Very valuable real estate will be sold at public auction, at Exmore station, 3 p. m. to day, by Zora Willis, agent.

There will be a fine display of fire works at Reads Wharf, Monday evening, of July 4th, if fair, if not, next evening.

A regular dinner will be served at Bunkie's, next Monday, court day. Ice cream and ice cold drinks also kept constantly on hand.

A fair will be held on Jobe's Island, on Wednesday, 25th day of June. A canoe race is to be an attractive feature of the occasion.

E. H. Benson, will be at Drummondtown, on Monday next, court day, with a full line of samples of summer suitings which will be sold very low to close out this season's stock.

County court next Monday, and all persons in attendance, if in arrears for subscription or otherwise, are invited and expected to call at our office promptly and settle their accounts.

It is understood that the B. & O. people are quietly making arrangements for a road to terminate on the Eastern Shore of Virginia, in Northampton county, at Cherrystone Inlet—Washington Sunday Herald.

The reputation of the Matthy House, Baltimore, for first class accommodations and low rates is fully sustained under the present management. This fact with its central location should recommend it to all travellers.

The premium list of the Eastern Shore Agricultural Fair is published in this issue. Everyone on our Peninsula should read carefully and all who can should resolve to contribute to its success by sending an exhibit of some kind.

S. K. Martin & Co., Hoffmans wharf, Va., have on hand a large and select stock of express shingles, well tubed, fine, plastering laths, N. C. heart pine, weather-boarding and a full stock of building material generally, at lowest market rates.

Mr. Major E. Selby will make a tour of the Peninsula next week. "To call on the trade" of which he receives such a liberal share at the hands of our merchants. They like his goods and the commercial tourist who dispenses the blessings in his line, and will wait his coming.

Mr. Archibald Annis, died last Sunday, near Bloomington, from the effects of an attack of paralysis of some weeks ago, aged sixty years. He was for many years Superintendent of the Poor of the county of Accomac. He was a faithful official and as a citizen generally esteemed.

F. H. Dryden, real estate agent, has sold for Messrs. H. Clay and Littleton J. Tull, a very nice farm, situated on the line of Maryland and Virginia, near New Church, to Mr. Stewart S. Shepherd. Mr. Dryden offers for sale several valuable farms in this issue. See advertisement in another column.

The Board of Supervisors at its last meeting, by virtue of an Act passed by the last Legislature, raised the salary of the county judge one hundred dollars more per annum. It also appointed Dr. Fletcher Drummond physician to the Poor-house and fixed his salary at one hundred dollars per annum.

The futurity stake races of the Chesapeake Agricultural Fair Association, will not be open to Delaware, Maryland and Virginia colts as published in previous issues of this paper, but only "open to Eastern Shore of Virginia colts." See change in notice elsewhere. The distance in these races also will be waived.

The clerk of our county court has received for distribution, the Acts of the General Assembly of the session 1891-92. The following officers are entitled to a copy: The clerks of the county and circuit courts, Commonwealth's attorney, sheriff, county treasurer, superintendents of public schools and of the poor, each supervisor, each justice of the peace and each commissioner of the revenue.

J. W. G. Blackstone and Thos. B. Quinby, special commissioners, will sell at public auction, on Saturday, 2nd day of July, 3 p. m., the Onancock Academy property, consisting of Academy building and lands belonging thereto, three pianos, school furniture, &c. The sale of the property will not interfere at all with the school for the next year. The school was larger last session than ever before, and the property is paying its owners a handsome percentage on their investment every year. The sale is made to settle up the accounts of guardians for the orphan children of some of the deceased stockholders.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

Mappsville.

The Government has established a money order office at this place.

Mrs. Lizzie VanSchaik, of New York, is visiting friends in this place.

Our farmers are busy with their hay crop which is much larger than ever before.

Mrs. Beck and two sons, of New Durham, N. J., are visiting the family of Mr. Walsh.

Misses Laura Mathews and Middle Noek are home from school—also Miss Alice Gillespie.

Mr. Wm. Walsh has bought of N. W. Noek, agent for Mrs. Emma Floyd, of Wilmington, Del., the farm known as the Sneed place.

George W. Gillespie, son of Mr. John W. Gillespie, has arrived from Baltimore, where he has been attending school. It is said that George leaves a good record behind him.

Mr. Thomas B. Gillespie was home this week from Newark, N. J., where he is in the commission business. He speaks hopefully of the outlook for good potatoes, both sweet and round.

John N. Watson has sold his farm to A. C. Hart. It is reported that Mr. Watson and family will move to Baltimore next year, and that Mr. Hart will occupy the farm. We will part with Mr. Watson and his pleasant family with much regret.

The circulars of the "Green Goods" men of New York, chiefly, are flooding our postoffice. It is to be hoped, that the good sense and integrity of our people will enable them to shun the snares set for them by these swindlers. All who attempt to invest their good money in this counterfeit stuff will certainly and surely lose both their money and character. Of the temper beware.

In the death of Mr. Elijah Kelly, last week, and Mr. John Y. Fitchett, who died some weeks ago, the community loses two of its oldest citizens. These men were the peers of any, in honesty, purity of character and in all those noble qualities that go to make the good citizen, patriot and gentleman. They were each possessed of more than ordinary intelligence and looked at events from a breadth of view, denied to the average citizen of their day and time. The one, Mr. Fitchett, was long a member of the Baptist Church, and in life and conduct, was a fitting exemplar of a noble faith, that works alike, for the upbuilding of both man and country; the other, Mr. Kelly, was associated with a church. The horizon of his faith was not bounded by any creed. It was as boundless as the universe itself. He picked the crumbs of comfort from every faith, and the seeds of righteousness from every book; he culled the flowers of hope from every clime, and rested secure in the faith of God's might and infinite justice. He was a believer in the universal brotherhood of man and his charity extended to every man and to every land ennobled by God's blue heavens. He worshipped his God in temples not made by hands, but in the fields amid the waving grain and in the dark, deep solitudes of the forest, he communed with his Maker. Desiring the conventionalities of men and of the times in which he lived, he squared his conduct and life, by his own keen perception of right and wrong. In the lives of these two men, their children have a just cause to rejoice and be proud, and in their example as citizens, our community might well prosper, grow great and be wise. Peace to their ashes.

Onancock.

Balliff R. J. Parker is on the streets in full force fixing up.

Miss Rew, from R. W. Wharf, Va., is visiting relatives here.

Jack Kelly and L. D. T. Quinby are home from the University.

Peter Paine, the "good old rebel," is Onancock's best crab man now.

Mrs. Alexander, of Philadelphia, has been visiting Mrs. Sarah Fosque at the College Place for the past week.

The Onancock base ball nine left here Wednesday, on sail vessel of Capt. Davis, for Crisfield, Md., where they will play the Crisfield nine.

Rev. Mr. Spencer, from Charles City county, Va., preached in the Onancock Baptist Church, last Sunday morning. Mr. Spencer was sick in consequence of seasickness from crossing the bay.

Mr. W. T. Wise, our druggist, caught a snake Tuesday by means of a slip-knot. The snake kept putting his head up through a knot hole there was in the floor until Mr. Wise laid his slip-knot and pulled him out. The knot hole is now plugged up.

Atlantic.

Fish never scarcer at this season of the year in our waters and prices very high.

Miss Anna Miles, pupil at Albemarle Female Institute, and Miss Bertha Parsons, of Onancock Academy, are home for the summer vacation.

Our people are "in the fight" against R. R. Co., for extortionate freight rates, and will contribute liberally in the efforts made to "down" them.

Mr. John S. Parsons, while home from Oklahoma on a visit to his parents, recently, was tendered the position of bookkeeper in a large commission house in Philadelphia and has accepted same.

Corn and sweet potato crops looking well in this section, and a large yield of each expected—the hay crop rather short but of excellent quality—round potatoes not counted by our farmers in reckoning up their revenues this year.

Chincoteague.

Master Isaac Hudson is home from business college, Philadelphia, on a visit to his parents.

Miss N. E. Cluff, daughter of Geo. W. Cluff, died on Friday, 17th inst., of dropsy, aged 14 years.

Children's Day exercises come off at our M. P. Church, to-morrow, Sunday. Everybody invited.

Mr. D. J. Wheaton paid us a flying visit this week and brought his family with him to remain during the summer.

Children's Day, observed at Union Baptist Church, last Sunday, was largely attended. The church was beautifully decorated with evergreens and flowers—music and recitations of very high order of merit.

Louis Wheaton, Caleb Bowden, Ansel Wheaton and Wm. Wheaton returned home from college at Westminster, Md., last Saturday. The first two are distinguished graduates of that institution, this session.

The Atlantic Hotel has been filled to its utmost capacity this week and numerous inquiries of late by letter indicate very liberal patronage during the entire summer and popularity with the travelling public that is growing daily.

A grand festival under the auspices of the Beulah Baptist Church, will be held in front of Hotel on the 4th of July. An address will be delivered on the occasion by Rev. J. W. Turner. Proceeds for benefit of the church. Cordial invitation extended to everyone.

Commander F. F. Harrington was here this week on an inspecting tour to Assateague, and Killick Shoals Lights and pronounced them, in first class order. He awarded to Bunting & Sons, contract for keep McTompin bays clean and in proper places at the price of $125 annually.

Fisher, Baltimore; H. Whitehead, Reading, Pa.; J. B. Hopkins, Pocomoke; Miss Florence McCullough, Port Deposit, Md.; F. C. Foster, Smyrna, Del.; W. J. Thoroughgood, Georgetown, Del.; Capt. L. J. Houten, in Stockton, Md.; Miss Mary Mathews, Mrs. A. F. Byrd, Dr. O. F. Byrd, Thomas Davis, Charles F. Witt, Accomac.

Davis' Wharf.

Mr. Jas. E. Wise, the father of Mrs. J. A. Brittingham, is visiting this delightful town.

Miss Lettie Shields has returned from Baltimore, where she has been under treatment for her eyes.

Miss Annie Lou Davis, who has been a pupil at the Norfolk Female College, came home on Saturday.

Mr. Louisa S. Ames, of Norfolk, who is visiting her children at this place, has been quite sick. We are glad to say, she is much better at this writing.

Mr. R. Dix Ames, who has been in the shoe business for a long time with T. C. Gale, of Norfolk, Va., is spending part of his leisure time with his sisters at this place.

Mr. Editor, we are Democrats down here to the core. We are waiting patiently to hear from Chicago. After we learn the news we will get in harness, and don't you forget it.

Leemont.

The M. P. Church is being handsomely painted.

Miss Carrie Johnson leaves Monday next for Bedford City, Va., to attend the Summer School of Methods.

Mr. A. J. Arnold and wife, of Washington, D. C., are the guests of Mr. D. K. Reeder—Mrs. Webster Ewell and children, of Crisfield, Md., of Dr. John Ewell.

Capt. George Trader, who was married in Baltimore, June 15th, to Miss Vivian Dobbins, has returned home with his bride. Capt. and Mrs. Trader have our warmest congratulations.

Notice to Teachers.

To the Public School Teachers of Accomac County:

Next Monday, the 27th of June, the Bedford Summer Normal School for teachers, will open, and continue four weeks. It promises to be, in every particular, the best normal institute ever held in the South, and I truly hope that all the teachers who can possibly spare the time and the money will avail themselves of this rare opportunity for both mental and physical improvement.

Those taking the early down train on the morning of the 27th, will arrive there in time for the opening exercises at 8:30 p. m., and thereby get a fair start with the entire proceedings, and possibly secure better rooms, better classification &c. Besides, young ladies unattended by special friends will be assisted and cared for by the various gentlemen teachers who will be going on the train indicated. I am expecting and hoping to see a goodly number of our progressive teachers there. Let Accomac, as usual, be in the front ranks.

Very sincerely yours,

J. E. MAPP.

All persons having debts due and outstanding against the estate of Levin W. Phillips, deceased, will please produce, and prove the same before the undersigned, at Accomac C. H., on court day, June 27th, 1892, and receive payment. L. R. Phillips and Thomas W. Russell.

The Glorious Fourth.

The day will be celebrated at the Fair Grounds near Keller, under the auspices of B. Bacon Lodge A. O. U. W. The program will be an elaborate and interesting one—in variety beyond the conception of the most imaginative—and of an excellence that will commend it to the most fastidious. The exercises commencing promptly at 9:30 a. m., will consist in part of: foot, apple and sack races, trotting races—2 year olds, 10 a. m.—3 year olds, 11 a. m.—free for all, 1:30 p. m., tournament, 2:30 p. m., slow mile race, 4 mile, in which the owner of mule entered, drives the mule of some one else. Dinner and supper, ice cream, confectioneries and all other delicacies of the season will be served on the occasion. Music and patriotic addresses also may be expected.

The steamer Eastern Shore will give a grand moonlight excursion on the occasion to Old Point Comfort—leaving her landings at the usual hour on her down trip from Baltimore—returning from Old Point at 12 o'clock making her landings at the usual time or her up trip to Baltimore and one dollar only will be charged for the round trip. Refreshments will be served in great variety and abundance at reasonable prices and delightful music will be rendered during the trip without cost to any excursionist. Remember the day, Monday, July 4th, the pleasures in store to all who avail themselves of it and the reasonable terms upon which they are offered.

A fair and festival will be held at Sykes, on the day, under the auspices of the Independent Order of Rechabites. The festivities will be embellished by music, &c., during the day. Dinner, supper and confectioneries to be served.

Public speaking at 11 a. m. and 3 p. m. If Tuesday day will be a bad day, will hold Wednesday. Proceeds to repair church.

COMMITTEE.

Bureau.

June 15th, 8 p. m., H. H. H. town was all aglow with young folks, smiles and congratulations. Visitors came from Accomac, Pocomoke and Baltimore. The Methodist Church is brilliantly lighted. Miss Mamie Pettitt is commander-in-chief, tastefully arranging costumes and decorations, flitting fairy-like, here and there, and you boys had better mind her. Cupid has won another victory, and two hearts rejoice over the past, and dream fondly of the future. This pretty marriage makes old people feel younger, and youngsters wish they were "just a little older." On the pulpit is a large cactus with one hundred and nine blossoms, here the hydra, there the snowy magnolia. Over all stretches a cedar arch, whence hangs a bell with rows of white and scarlet lilies. So, light, beauty and fragrance surround Adam and Eve. From carriage to vestibule falls a carpet. The ushers are Messrs. Oliver Henderson and Upton Mason; the groomsmen, Messrs. Hiram Brittingham and Charles Hurley; bridesmaids, Misses Ina Selby and Minnie Bevans. The little maids of honor, Misses Lizzie Watson and Mabel Selby, bearing beautiful bouquets, knelt at the altar, on either side, during prayer. While the wedding march is played, Mr. Wm. A. Hurley, a popular merchant of New Church, and Miss Luella M. Watson, a favorite young lady of Hornstown, advance under the bell, and Rev. W. W. Wood, of Modestown, united them in holy wedlock. The bride wore coronation, and the five ladies were in pure white—at emblem of innocence and joy. She received many handsome and valuable gifts. Her parents, Mr. Joseph H. Watson and lady, gave to fifty-two appreciative guests an elegant supper, gracefully superintended by Mr. and Mrs. Holland, Mrs. Emily Selby and others. Next evening, some sixty were splendidly entertained at the reception given by the groom's father, Mr. Wm. Hurley, at New Church. Numerous friends wish this couple a happy and useful life.

ONE OF THEM.

June 14th, 1892, at Mappsville, by Rev. J. L. King, James R. Lewis to Miss Ethel Youn.

June 15th, 1892, at bride's home in Onancock, by Rev. J. B. Pruitt, Harry C. McConnell to Miss V. Lee Weaver.

The Oyster Grounds Survey.

Dr. Wilkins, the State Shell Fish Commissioner, and Captain Baylor, of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, were in conference with the Board of Chesapeake and its Tributaries yesterday with reference to arranging the details of the survey of the Virginia oyster grounds. The General Government has loaned the State a steam launch for the accommodation of the survey party, but a steamer is also needed for their sleeping quarters. This is also hoped, they will get from the United States Government—Richmond Dispatch, 17th.

Real Estate Notice.

Very valuable real estate is offered for sale in this issue by Zoro Willis, agent. The farm is just what the average farmer on the Eastern Shore wants, and is of that kind which pays better as an investment than any other. Its size, location, resources and improvements commend it to land buyers of every kind and description. The house and lot too is very valuable either as a home or investment and admirably located for gentlemen of leisure who want a club house.

Unclaimed Letters.

Mail remaining unclaimed in the postoffice at Accomac C. H., Va., June 22nd, 1892:

Miss Elizabeth Ames, Mrs. Mary Ames, John Armstrong, Rev. T. Brown, Mrs. Anna Fisher, Charlie Heartway, Miss Bessie Johnson, George Nottingham, Edward T. Thomas.

GEO. F. PARKER, P. M.

Races at Cape Charles.

The announcement is authorized, "that there will be races at Cape Charles, on the 4th of July," and that among the entries "will be several good horses from Norfolk and Suffolk." Excursion trains will run on that day for the accommodation of those who wish to attend.
